In honour of Kina, I thought I'd immortalise her here, in our credits. Until something else cries out to be here, instead. She may be gone, but she'll not be forgotten, as long as people look at the credits.

I don't know about you, but I know I wasn't expecting that turn of events. (Despite Kyoshiro-- who QC'd chapter 11-- trying very hard to spoil it for me.) I didn't really like her all that much as a love-interest character, but even so, that was pretty shocking.
